

Insight beyond a handshake and a resume.

Very much a free thinker. Here is a love of friendship based on good conversation and the exchange of weird ideas.

Tends to end up as a leader of projects and people will instinctively follow his enthusiasm.

Strong sexual nature. Outside most boundaries here. Sex as an outlet for creativity. Combine this with a tendency to invent and build weird gadgetry... makes him a very fun lover for the adventurous spirit.

A good tool user. Handy. Can both think of and build some really strange devices.

This is not a person who will easily settle down with only one lover. He's not suited for suburbs, picket fences, or monogamy/monotony. However, he will find his true love. Often. Occasionally with entire dance troupes or theatrical casts simultaneously.
